Receiving Communion during Mass. The 'Communion Screens' will be removed this weekend. Eucharistic Ministers will continue to sanitise before distributing holy communion and wear a facemask/covering. We encourage parishioners to wear a facemask/covering when attending Mass and sanitise on arrival. Please continue to receive communion on your hand, not on your tongue as this will contaminate the Eucharistic Minister's hand. Parishioners seated in the side/crying chapel should come to the sanctuary to receive communion. A Eucharistic Minister will continue to bring communion to parishioners seated at Our Lady's Altar. If you are bringing communion to the sick or housebound, please call to the sacristy door to collect bread(s), leave your pyx on the altar for consecration, collect your pyx when Mass has ended. Fr Jim will distribute gluten free hosts, please make a request with the sacristan before Mass begins. We will continue to evaluate restrictions and guidelines and communicate any changes to you. Thank you for your support and understanding.
